A CREATIVE APP THAT ACTS AS A VIRTUAL PIANO TEACHER.

Learning to play the piano is not an easy task, especially if you are just starting out and have to learn the appropriate notes for each instrument key.

PianoNotesFinder is a handy tool that can help you do this by providing you with a convenient way to learn notes.

Flexible instrument for learning to play the piano

The app allows you to see the image and meaning of each piano key along with the relevant notes. These can be standard A, B and C, to which Solfeggio DO, RE, MI is added.

In addition, you can see how to play notes with discount and bass keys, optionally changing the tone. Thus, you can see which key corresponds to a certain note on the sheet of music by holding your fingers on it.

Convenient piano simulator

PianoNotesFinder can be used as a piano simulator and a program to create a sheet of music. By clicking or holding your fingers over the piano keys, you will see the appropriate note and position in the spreadsheet. This is a very useful feature, especially when creating a new song.

For example, you can use the app to play a song by recording every note you use. So you can quickly write your own music sheets and use them playing a real piano, or share them with your friends. A reliable but still unpolished application.

You can find out more about the program HERE (https://neonway.org/pianonotesfinder/).

To sum up, PianoNotesFinder is perfect for studying every piano note. The app is mostly designed for smartphones, and it lacks some tools that would make its use on the computer more convenient. By matching the keystrokes of a virtual piano with your computer, or adding a function of recording and saving music sheets, the program can help many people master the art of playing the piano.

You can watch the video on youTube how the program works.
