CLASSIFICATION OF MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS!

Symphony Orchestra. Ensembles. Leading conductors. Soloists. Once, each of the accomplished musicians felt in itself the impulse to give themselves and others the sounds of music. And at this stage, the person chose a tool with which you can reach the hearts of listeners.

What a person has is a voice. The most versatile tool, the possession of which is perfect except as a miracle, can not be called. It is always with its owner, no special carriers for transportation it is not required. The cost only of training with a good teacher.

Instruments from which the music is "blown out" are called brass. The most famous: harmonica, trumpet, saxophone... Here you have to spend both on the tool itself, and on the case for its carrying. Not to mention valves, mouthpiece, cork, devices to change the volume of sound. Good wind instruments because they are not heavy when carrying, you do not need to spend money on setting up the sound of the instrument, and it turns out, you can improve your skills wherever you want.

All instruments that have strings are stringed instruments. Here immediately comes to mind piano, guitar, violin ... It is quite expensive for some representatives of this series, it is necessary to constantly adjust the instrument: any shake threatens to break the strings. With a special skill, of course, you can do it yourself. Not every string instrument you will carry with you, for example, to the competition of performers. It's good if it's a balalaika. What about the piano? I think it will not be easy with the harp either...

Drum, litavrs – with its simplicity, these percussion instruments will give quite difficult music. This irreplaceable sense of rhythm in any work will be nice to vibrate throughout your body. Of course, these musical instruments are not cheap either – like all of the above, they are made entirely of natural materials, as a person, as soon as he heard the music in his heart, resonated with him in everything that came across to him: from a bitch, to piece of metal. Despite the fact that now music has become more complex, multifaceted, demanding to its performers, there are those who can simply their musical taste to win the hearts of millions.

This classification, of course, does not reveal the whole variety of instruments, but it will be clear, at least, even to those who by the nature of their activities have not encountered any of the conductors in the world of music.
